Subject: Sold out by DOJ

Is this the email address where I can get the list of laws that I can freely break and receive only a DOJ admonition, "Now, now, don't do it again."? Or do I have to get that list directly from Microsoft?

The Microsoft settlement endorsed by the DOJ is a sellout of the American public. Microsoft has crushed countless competitors through monopolistic practices -- not through creating superior products -- and called it "innovation".

If there was ever a case for serious government trustbusting, this is it, but the proposed DOJ settlement is nothing more than a mild slap on the wrist. How can you have the courts repeatedly rule that Microsoft is a monopoly, and then hand them such a victory? I hope the states or the E.U. has sense enough to do something meaningful. I am ashamed of my government.
